ABOUT CONFERENCE

5th International Conference on Advancing Knowledge from Multidisciplinary Perspectives in Education, Engineering & Technology (ICAKMPET), organized by Bohol Island State University, Philippines; Eurasian Doctoral Student Academy, London, UK; Western Philippines University, Philippines and IFERP Academy - Philippines Society, will take place on January 24th & 25th, 2025, in Cebu, Philippines. This conference aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers, and scholars to share their research and experiences in Education, Engineering, and Technology. ICAKMPET provides a dynamic platform for discussing innovative trends, challenges, and solutions, fostering interdisciplinary collaboration, and enhancing professional networking to advance knowledge and drive technological progress.

CONFERENCE THEME

The ICAKMPET focuses on "Reshaping the Future: Education, Engineering, and Technology for Sustainable Societies" highlighting the importance of interdisciplinary approaches in tackling sustainability challenges. The conference promotes innovative education, engineering, and technology solutions to foster sustainable development and resilient societies.

OBJECTIVES OF CONFERENCE

Aim is to achieve several key objectives. It seeks to foster interdisciplinary collaboration among academic scientists, researchers, and scholars to address contemporary challenges in education, engineering, and technology. The conference provides a platform for presenting and discussing innovative research, trends, and solutions, promoting the dissemination of knowledge. Additionally, it aims to facilitate networking opportunities, encouraging the formation of professional relationships and collaborations that can drive future advancements. Ultimately, ICAKMPET strives to contribute to the development of sustainable societies through shared expertise and innovative approaches.

PURPOSE OF THE CONFERENCE

Conference aims to address pressing global challenges through the lens of education, engineering, and technology. By facilitating discussions on emerging trends, methodologies, and best practices, it aims to inspire transformative ideas and practical solutions that can drive societal progress and sustainability. Participants will have opportunities to present their research, engage in interactive sessions, and network with peers from around the world, thereby creating synergies that transcend disciplinary boundaries.

WHAT IS CPD ?

- i. Continuing Professional Development (CPD) involves professionals and researchers seeking methods intentionally developing their knowledge and skills to ensure they keep up to date and complete their professional responsibilities to the highest standard.
- ii. CPD is a bitesize learning that keeps qualifications up to date and prevents them from becoming obsolete.
- iii. It is equally important for people without degrees but in a chosen career to demonstrate a commitment to expanding their skills and knowledge.

WHAT ARE CPD POINTS ?

- CPD points are a measure of your educational activities and can be used to maintain professional registration.
- They can also be used as evidence of your commitment to continued professional development.
- The points are usually awarded for attending training courses, conferences and other events, or for completing self-directed learning activities.
- The number of points you can earn for each activity varies, and is set by the training provider or relevant professional body.

WHAT DOES CPD ACCREDITATION MEAN ?

- Combined, the term "CPD accreditation" describes the process for verifying the educational authority of training, online education and coaching providers.
- It ensures that the CPD learning activities offered conform to third-party industry standards.
- CPD accreditation means that the training has gone through a rigorous third-party verification and therefore is a mark of quality for the consumer.

IS CPD INTERNATIONAL ?

- Yes, CPDSO has members in over 50 countries.
- The policies and Institutes change as does the way professionals use their CPD points, but the points/hours are universal, and can be issued and accepted across the globe.

CPD BENEFITS

- Keeping skills and knowledge up to date
  - Career progression
  - Supports Lifelong Learning
  - Networking Opportunities
  - Access to Latest Innovations
  - Increases Global Competitiveness
  - Free webinars and Events
  - A professional sense of direction
  - Increased Funding Opportunities
  - Completing CPD-accredited events can enhance a professional's credibility, often required for maintaining licenses or certifications in certain industries
  - Professional recognition : CPD-certified qualifications can be listed on a CV, which can help delegates when applying for new roles or seeking promotion.
- CPD Certificate from the accredited provider
  - 1 Year Free Institute of CPD (iCPD) membership
  - Claim CPD Hours or Points for Participating in your Accredited Conferences / Training Activities
  - Confidence and credibility are built and enhanced
  - Professional Development and Knowledge Enhancement
  - Professional standards of qualifications and registrations are maintained
  - Encourages Ethical and Responsible Research
